

A President Without Precedent

I am a President without precedent-think of all I've affected since re-elected.

My deeds you should have expected
(though I have misdirected.)

I call you names, won't play your games.

I'm not dumb. I love you numb because half the country is scum who deserve being under my thumb.

I make many queasy because I won't go easy.

Go ahead and grieve-I will never leave.

Yes-you all should be peeved
at what you have conceived.
